Discover the region

In Alghero : the old town of Catalan origin, with its Porta a Mare, the cathedral (dating back to the 16th century), the Maison des Doria (Renaissance palace dating back to the Genoese domination), the church of San Francesco with its restful cloister, craft shops.

The Neptune caves on Cap Caccia point, on the other side of the bay of Porto Conte

The bay of Porto Conte (or the bay of Nymphes), now a nature reserve and doubtlessly the largest natural port of the Mediterranean. A calm, peaceful bay, ideal for swimming and SCUBA diving, especially in its fifty or so underwater caves.
