Your destination

With its pure air and magical light, its hills dotted with graceful cypress trees, its fortified villages and castles, its vineyards and olive groves, Tuscany offers the visitor the quintessence of Italy. Birthplace of the Renaissance, home of Leonard deVinci and the painter Piero della Francesca, the region also saw the birth of Petrarch, the first humanist, and Machiavelli the first modern political figure. Tuscany is a fascinating land that one never tires of exploring. Get a taste of the Tuscan lifestyle, you will come back!
