The Maremma, whose name comes from the Latin "Maritima Regio", is a magnificent area between the lush, green parks and the Mediterranean Sea. Crystal-clear waters on untouched coastlines and charming countryside scenery are the ideal setting for a relaxing holiday in Italy away from the hustle and bustle of the large cities. Tiny villages perched on hillsides and a rich and varied local culinary traditions are the main reasons that make the Maremma a very popular destination for visitors from Italy and abroad.
